MOTION

1. Urgent Need to commend the Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC) for its significant gains made in recent times, particularly in 2024, despite the challenges it has encountered.

Sponsor: Sen. Emmanuel, Udende Memga (Benue North-East)

The Senate:

Notes that the Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC) was established as a frontline agency mandated to combat economic and financial crimes in Nigeria, with specific powers to investigate, prevent, and prosecute offenders involved in money laundering, advance fee fraud, cybercrimes and other forms of financial malpractice;

Also notes that the Commission, since its establishment, has played a crucial role in promoting accountability, transparency, and integrity in both public and private sectors, thereby contributing to the financial sanctity, safety and framework of Nigeria;

Observes that in 2024 the Commission received 15,724 petitions, opened case files for and investigated 12,928 cases, and filed 5,081 cases in court;

Pleased that despite limited resources, operational constraints, threats to personnel, and the increasing complexity of financial crimes, the Commission has remained committed to its statutory mandate with visible results, including the investigation and successful record of 4,111 convictions in the year 2024, marking the highest number secured in any operational year to date;

Aware that through these convictions in 2024, the Commission recovered substantial sums of money in different currencies, and stolen assets, with a summary of monetary recoveries, and forfeited assets in 2024 as follows:

SUMMARY OF MONETARY RECOVERIES IN 2024

Also aware that the activities of the EFCC during this period contributed to enhancing Nigeria's image both locally and internationally, reinforcing public confidence in the nation's resolve to fight corruption and economic sabotage;

Conscious of the fact that anti-corruption agencies like the EFCC need sustained moral and institutional support from the legislature and other arms of government to continue to deliver on their mandate in the interest of national development and good governance; and

Recognizes the commitment, patriotism, and sacrifices made by officers and staff of the Commission, many of whom operate in difficult conditions and under considerable personal risk to ensure justice is served and the nation's economic well-being is protected,

Accordingly resolves to:

- i. Commend the Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC) for its unwavering dedication, professionalism, courage, integrity, patriotism and the noble achievements in the fight against financial crimes, particularly the significant gains recorded in the year 2024; and
- ii. Mandate the relevant Committees of the National Assembly to continue to provide effective oversight and legislative backing for the strengthening of the EFCC and other anti-corruption institutions in Nigeria, with a view to promoting accountability, good governance, and public trust in government.
